Bernetta Jones was born March 9, 1973 to Amos "Dad" and Rosie Lee Burgess. She was the youngest of twelve children. She and her siblings were raised in church and taught the value of hard work. Bernetta was preceded in death by her father, mother, brother: Freddy Burgess, and sister: Pearlene Barnett.

Bernetta married the love of her life, Roderick Jones, on March 9, 1996. They were blessed with three children: Emma Lanora Jones, Lynal Tirrell Jones and Alexis Rosaria Jones. Bernetta was affectionately nicknamed "Bae Bae" by her siblings and loved ones. She was the proud baby of the family and was always cherished.

Bernetta was known as a warrior. Church members looked forward to hearing her bring a word and give her testimony of the goodness of God. She was a woman of faith and few words. She enjoyed the simple things of life, such as, family, dollar stores, homemaking, watching old tv shows and living her life for the Lord. Her home beautifully decorated, blessed, and clean at all times. Bernetta earned her high school equivalent degree while she stayed home to be the caregiver for her ill mother.

Bernetta graduated from Cosmetology School in 1999. After marrying, she was blessed to stay home as a housewife for many years. Later, she opened her heart and home to children of family and friends providing loving childcare. She was an immaculate housekeeper. Bernetta worked as a Certified Nurse Assistant (CNA) for Crest Park Retirement Home briefly. She worked for Kids for the Future as a lead teacher and supervisor. She took great pride in her job. God showed her favor during her years at Kids for the Future and she met a lot of wonderful people. She sang with her mother, sisters, and aunt and they were known as the Wondering Aires.

Bernetta served in many roles at Cedar Grove Church of Jesus Christ in Round Pond,

Arkansas. She has been a faithful member there all of her life. She served as a Sunday School teacher for the youth, Vocational Bible School (original) teacher and organizer, and a mighty missionary with a powerful message. Bernetta departed this life on January 7, 2021 leaving precious memories with her three children: Emma Lanora Jones, Lynam Tirrell Jones, Alexis Rosaria Jones, and godson, Marvin C. Barnett.

Her siblings will miss her dearly. She is survived by four sisters: Roberta (Robert) Echols, Nancy Ann (Archie) Butler, Ruthie (Cleave) Whitby, and Bernice (Kenneth) Word; five brothers: Jonathan (Alma) Burgess, Sr., Amos (Doris) Burgess, Jr., Terry (Pauline) Burgess, Sr., David (LaSonya) Burgess, Sr., and Elbert (Debra) Burgess. She also leaves a sister-in-law: Cora Jones and two brothers-in-law: Derrick Jones and Joseph Jones along with aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Bernetta's soulmate, Roderick Tirrell Jones, made her life bountiful. He was her best friend, confidant, loving spouse, protector, provider, and eventually her caregiver. No role was above or beneath him when it came to his "baby". He loved her unconditionally.

“ My favorite memory of "Mrs. Bernetta" at Kids for the Future was her sitting cross-legged in the floor, surrounded by happy two-year-olds, while she read stories to them. She read with enthusiasm and expressive energy and she kept those children engaged! Bernetta was a consistently loving, joy-filled, and godly woman at KFF. She lived out her faith. She encouraged us and served as an example to us of a godly wife and mother. Thank you for choosing this picture of her to post - it shows her beautiful smile, with her eyes lit up, just the way I remember her. And thank you, whoever wrote the awesome tribute to her. Roderick, Alexis, Lynal, and Emma, I am praying for you.

“ Mrs. Bernetta, you were a joy to be around. I always found it amusing how you would always put so much sugar in your coffee and leave such a mess behind. We often laughed about this when we worked in the room together. The words of encouragement and godly conversations we shared throughout the years helped me more than you could have ever realized. Your love for God, your husband, and children was evident in the smile that lit up your face whenever you spoke of any of them. It is so hard to accept that you are no longer here to spread God's love. Though I know I will see you in heaven, I sure will miss you on Earth. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Rejoice, Mrs. Bernetta, you are with your Daddy-God. I love and miss you.

“ Working with you in room 2 help me through a lot. Our talks about life and God grew me on ways you wouldn't imagine. They way you talked about your kids and your husband made me want that! Your husband adored you and seeing you as a wife showed me what it meant to be a true one! I'll never forget you and I love you!
