Tyler Tyrone Coleman was born on July 4th, 1984, in Marianna Arkansas to parents Roy Lee Sr. and Joyce Coleman. He was the youngest of 3 children and the missing piece to their family puzzle. A cherub faced baby boy full of love, joy, and light. He carried those traits throughout his entire life.

Tyler attended school in Marianna and graduated Lee Sr. High in 2002. He later relocated to Jonesboro, AR for employment opportunities. He spent a number of years as a highly respected superintendent in the manufacturing field.

In 2005, he met a young lady named Renisha and fell deeply in love. He claimed her as his Queen. In 2007, they became the proud parents to Princess Tyianna, and the greatest daddy/daughter duo in the world was formed. He was a fully devoted girl dad. Tyler and Renisha wed in October of 2008. Throughout 13 years of marriage, they built a life together and shared a once in a lifetime love.

During his youth, Tyler was baptized by Pastor O.B Brown at the Union M.B Church. In 2016 he joined the Good Shepherd M.B Church under the leadership of his father Pastor Roy Coleman. There he served in whatever capacity was needed.

Tyler was a special person. An exceptional, wonderful man with a beautiful spirit. A true angel on earth. He left a lasting impact on everyone that he encountered. He cherished his family and friends and showered them with an abundance of love. He was compassionate, kind, and selfless. He was willing to help anyone he cared for, and he was an absolute joy to be around. You were guaranteed a laugh while in his presence. Affectionately known as Bizkit, he was the "big" little brother and the fun uncle. Tyler enjoyed traveling, grilling, and video gaming. He was a collector and artist. He was a man of integrity, a provider, and most importantly, a present husband and father.

Tyler is preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, George and Fannie Mae Hall, paternal grandparents Albert and Essie B. Coleman, and also nephew Ro'Dre Mitchell.

He leaves behind a devastated and heartbroken family. Wife Renisha, daughter Tyianna, parents Roy Sr. and Joyce Coleman, brothers Roy Jr. (Gwen) and Christopher Sr. (his best friend and partner in mischief), mother in-law Patricia, sister-in-law Sharisha, brother in-law Marqual, nieces Breanna, Alexandria, Jessica, Kylie, and Amora, nephews Christopher Jr, Maysen, Ashton, Au'Bron, Kaiyel, Corell Jr, and Kobe, special cousin, Charles "Chuck" Grandberry (his bonus brother). As well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, in-laws, extended family, friends, co-workers, and associates.

This great man was a light that dimmed too soon and he will be missed dearly. Tyler's legacy and memory will live on forever in the lives he has touched.

“ Tyler always, always had the biggest smile on his face. While working together many of us went to classes together and one of the funniest memories I have of him was trying to get a catapult to hit a target. It was always just a little off and, even though extremely patient, we all knew it was getting on his very last nerve. He had the entire class laughing. One of the good ones Tyler was. Had a heart as big as his smile.

“ Tyler was absolutely one of the best people I've ever met, and am very glad to have gotten to call him a friend.
Tyler and I worked together and that's where we built our friendship.
Tyler talked so highly of his family, he was no doubt a very proud father and husband.

“ My most sincere condolences to the family. Tyler was a truly great man, he had a heart of gold and full of compassion. He led by example and encouraged others to be the best they could be and to do so with confidence and character. He will forever be on the hearts of so very many people as he touched so many of us throughout the years. Fly my friend, until we meet again.

“ Tyler's heart and dedication for serving and leading others was unmatched. He was a man that led with sincerity and genuinely cared for others. The attached picture is just one example that recognized his dedication to lead, and of how he met challenges with leadership grace to be a true servant leader. Tyler was an amazing leader, friend, and mentor to many who's memories and teachings of how we should treat others will live on. See you and your warm hug, your tilted hat and bling in the next world, Tyler!

“ I got to work with Tyler as he was my line lead on the HH line. He always had my back, especially when everything was going crazy on my line he would come down to help & get me lined out. I remember times I was so aggravated about everything going haywire but Tyler was always calm & it helped me to calm down & realize it was all good, even joking a little bit. I remember when I put in my notice to leave Nice-Pak, Tyler was one of the first to wish me the best of luck in my new opportunity & that he didn't blame me & understood that I was trying to better myself. I could tell he was genuine & sincere In saying that to me. You were a great dude Tyler & travel easy on your journey.

“ Words cannot express my heartfelt condolences to the family. Tyler and I first met when he came to the HH department. He was a natural born leader, motivator and sincerely cared about others which empowered them to want to succeed. He had the biggest heart and warm personality unlike no other .. I'm thankful for the opportunity to have known him. God bless the family and friends on such a great loss. He is missed greatly.

“ Not gonna lie, I showed up to work drunk one night and had an incident happen which I should have been fired. Instead Tyler took me inside the office and had an actual heart to heart with me. He was so compassionate and went out of his way to make sure that I was okay and that if I ever needed help he would be there. This man was a treasure, not because he saved my job at the time, but because he cared.

“ From my original start at Nicepak Tyler was an outstanding leader and more importantly a friend. When I left the company, he did nothing but wish me the best in my future. We continued to stay in some contact afterwards. My thoughts and prayers to your family and loved ones during this time. Know Tyler was an awesome individual who will be greatly missed.
