

Ms. Angela Ann "Annie Bell" Anderson

March 19, 1986 - September 2, 2021

Ms. Angela Ann Anderson, also known as "Anniebell" or "Annie" for short, was born March 19, 1986 to Debra Williams and Jimmy Kilgore.

Angela confessed her life as a child and attended St. Luke AME Church with her siblings and step-grandmother under the leadership of Reverend Burl and Reverend Outley. She was a member of the Youth Department and Choir.

Angela attended Forrest City High School and was a graduate with the Class of 2005. Angela didn't work outside the house, but she was known to family and friends as "the go-to babysitter." Her love for her nieces and nephews was pure and real. Angela enjoyed spending time with family and friends, especially when it was the A-Team Girls' Night. She was always down for a game of deuces, pop-a-matic, talking on the phone while being "DJ Annie" at the same time. She was known to make good deviled eggs, tuna fish, and she baked soft, moist cakes.

Angela unexpectedly departed her life on September 2, 2021 at St. Bernards Hospital in Jonesboro, Arkansas. She was preceded in death by her grandparents—Jack Anderson, Sr. and Bytha Metcalf; three aunts—Emma Lou Anderson, Essie Anderson-Lockett, and Earline Anderson; and two uncles—Jessie Anderson and John Wesley Scott.

Angela leaves her wonderful memories to cherish her mother—Debra Williams; her stepfather who raised her as his own—Gerald Williams, Sr. She also leaves one niece—GaMiya Alexander; three nephews— LaDavien, Travion, and Brandon Alexander whom she raised as her very own. She was also crazy about her nephew—Devlyn “Doodabug” Williams. She also leaves two sisters—Kamisha Anderson (with whom she had lived for the past fifteen years) and Kamesha (Charles) McCary both of Jonesboro, Arkansas; four brothers—Lucas Anderson of Arlington, Texas, Gerald Williams, Jr. of Forrest City, Arkansas, Devin (Dashia) Williams, and Trevor (Kara) Williams both of Jonesboro, Arkansas; one sister-in-law—Keshia Thomas; three aunts—Gail (Ricky) Humphrey, Alice Avila, and Brenda Ivory; eleven uncles—Jack Anderson, Sr., Richard Anderson, J.W. Anderson, Curtis (Christine) Anderson, James Anderson, Earnest Anderson, Roy Lee Ivory, Theodis Williams, Leodis Williams, Jr., Herman Williams, and Joe Ingram; two best friends—Shanique McGaughy of Maumelle, Arkansas and Nasonya Bobo of Jonesboro, Arkansas; her A-Team sisters; and a host of nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends.

“ Annie Bell you will truly be missed my Girl. You were a very nice and sweet young lady. I really appreciated you for being my grandchildren baby sitter, you took care of them as if they were your own and they will truly miss you and so will I. I'll miss talking and laughing with you when you came by with Tweety. I'll remember the last talk we had before you left us. Saying good bye too such a sweet and loveable young lady is going to be hard but I know with the help of Jesus he will see us through. Fly High my Girl.
