“ What a shock to have learned of one of my FAVORITE LOVING, SWEET, KIND, AND CHRISTAIN LADY gone on to her HEAVENLY HOME. Mrs. Bobo were so very special to me and will forever be in my HEART. Ike and Velma, their mom and the rest of the Bobo family. your mother is a TREASURE to keep in your HEARTS. May memories of the "Good fellowship times" shared, words of encouragement spoken and smiles of joy given, be forever in your hearts. I know that no one can cook those meals like Mrs. Bobo. Her family was her world and all love that she gave.. Keep in your hearts of all the special times that the family shared, the holidays, birthdays, church events when she dressed in the hat, suit, bag and shoes to match, what beautiful dressing lady. family reunions. the cookouts and all the times loving the family. I pray for God's mercy during this difficult time and that he gives you peace, comfort, and strength to CELEBRATE HER LIFE SO BEAUTIFUL AND WELL- LIVED. Ike and Velma were in my last class that I taught in 2013 in the second grade at Central Elementary school. Ike, Velma and the Bobo family will be in my heart. My prayers are with you today and the days ahead.

Mrs. Bobo will truly be missed. I rode her bus and waited at her house until my mom got off work. That's who she was, she feed us and cared for us after a long days work and to my knowledge never charge my mom dime. So grateful for your generous heart .

“ Granny. I finally made it, but not soon enough. You don't know how much I miss you!! I'm so glad I gave you flowers, while you were here! When you see me get down and beside myself, you hold me granny. Sprinkle that salt on me like old times. Cover me with the crochet blanket! You make the best dressings and was the best DRESSING! I won't forget Granny..I'll carry your legacy on forever. Legends never die. Neither does Indians. Love you Mudea...Trevia.
