

Miss Audree D. Ingram

February 14, 1987 - April 19, 2025

Audree was born February 14, 1987 and gained her wings on April 19, 2025 at NEA Baptist Memorial Hospital in Jonesboro, Arkansas. Audree was the daughter of Joe Henry Ingram, Sr. and Melanie Sue Tomlin Ingram. She attended Forrest City School until she was in the third grade and finished her education at Palestine High School where she graduated in 2005.

Audree joined the military in 2005, completing basic training at Fort Jackson, South Carolina. She attended East Arkansas Community College and Arkansas State University after relocating to Jonesboro. In 2018, she began her career with United States Postal Service (USPS) until her untimely passing.

Audree was the biggest light walking into a room. With her infectious smile and laughter. She could turn any situation into a good one with her humor. She was the comedian at all the family gatherings. Reading was one of her favorite hobbies (very favorite). As well as watching documentaries and a good mystery show.

Audree was preceded by her grandparents, Leamon and Girtha Tomlin; and her grandmother, Audrey Splunge.

She leaves to cherish her memories her three sons, Drelyn Bender, Kamren

Bender, and Kaden Bender all of Jonesboro, AR; parents, Joe H. Ingram, Sr. of Forrest City, AR and Melanie Sue Ingram Palestine, AR; four siblings, Markita Tomlin of Jonesboro, AR, Jasmine Ingram Forrest City, AR, Cachet (Jordan) McKay of Houston, TX, and Joe Ingram, Jr. of Forrest City, AR; grandparents, Leodis Williams of Forrest City, AR; great grandmother, Climmie Gardner Forrest City, AR; her one and only nephew, Nasir Crayton of Houston, TX; fiancé, Myke Compton of Jonesboro, AR; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and very close friends.
