“ My Nephew was one of a kind he always respected me as his Aunt as well as just being a woman but what I loved about my Nephew the most was that he had a relationship with God and that was what made me happy. I loved him dearly and I will always love him and remember him for the rest of my life. I am just waiting to join him on the other side. LOVE YOU ALWAYS!!!!!!! (the time that Barry was born I nicknamed him Boo- boo and it haven't been too long ago that I just stopped calling him that, but he will always be my Boo-boo).

“ I remember that my daddy would always tell us how to view the world and many words of wisdom and encouragement to keep going in the world. I remember him always preparing the way for us as his children. I am really close to my father, you can say I'm literally a split image of him in mind body and spirit. He was comforting to us all, loving no matter how he had to show it to you, his smile was honest, and if he could give us the world and more he would. Sincerely he was a man of great faith in Lord Jesus. He was more concerned about others spirit than his very own. Making sure we got right with God well before his time. Having to experience life without you now hurts my soul. However, it's aiding to know he does not have to suffer anymore and God has him in heaven with him now. I keep remembering how he would say, sweetie swee my earthly angels when I leave this world I'll be in a much better place, y'all remember what y'all daddy taught y'all and especially me to carry it out. To never think that we are alone when it's time. It's time to put that to test. He never wanted to see us cry or in pain. He wanted us to treat his death as a victory for him making it through the Gates of Heaven. I love you always daddy and rest in love, peace and harmony.
