Bertha Elizabeth Brickhouse was born October 13, 1930 to the late George and Fannie Lou Brickhouse in Forrest City, Arkansas. She was the third of the three children born to this reunion. Her siblings were James H. Brickhouse and Izola Lynch, both of whom have preceded her in death.

Elizabeth attended Lincoln Grammar/High School. At an early age she professed a life in Christ Jesus at Jerusalem Baptist Church, where she became a member.

She leaves to cherish her memories two daughters—Luwanda (Barry) Tabron of Sterling Heights, Michigan and Gloria (Eugene) Stocker of Sherwood, Arkansas; a son—David Tabor of Melvindale, Michigan; four grandchildren—Jovan, Keambria, Dequrontez, and Alliyah; four great grandchildren; and a host of nieces and nephews.

After becoming ill in 2010 she moved to North Little Rock with her daughter and son-in-law. Later she moved to Lakewood Nursing and Rehab Facility in North Little Rock, where she resided until she departed this life on March 13, 2021.

She enjoyed listening to Gospel music. One of her favorite artists was Lee Williams and The Spiritual QC's. She also enjoyed watching Pro Wrestling, cooking, gardening, and spending time with her children.
