“ I first met Blance when she rented a room from my uncle around 1963-64. During that time she was pregnant with daughter, Vickie Peter's. I learned so much from Vickie and other ladies who rented from my uncle. She was always kind and respectful and caring of people around her. Each time I returned home, I made sure to stop by to check on her and her daughter, Vickie. Condolences to Vickie and her entire family.
