Brinda Ann McDonald Dean was born on September 7, 1960 to Otis McDonald and Louise Barrett McDonald, which both preceded her in death. She was the second of 8 children, with 2 preceding her in death. She was born and raised in Hughes, AR, where she attended grade school at Mildred Jackson Elementary and she continued her formal education at Hughes High School.

After high school, Brinda relocated to Lafayette, LA, where she worked diligently to create a better life for her family. She was married to her former husband, who assisted with raising their four children in Forrest City, AR. Brinda worked overnight to provide care for the elderly. She enjoyed fishing, visiting with her family, vacationing, attending daily prayer service, early morning walking, and street evangelism. Prophetess Dean began her walk of faith at an early age. She was baptized into the body of Christ at the New Bethel C.O.G.I.C in Hughes, Arkansas under the leadership of the late Superintendent Dr. Alexander Dean Jr., where she served as a choir member, assisted with alter call as a prayer warrior, and remained a faithful member until God called her home.

Brinda Ann McDonald Dean was a loving and devoted daughter, sister, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She leaves to cherish her precious memory of four loving children, Belinda Braddock of Jacksonville, AR, McFerrin McDonald of Augusta, GA, Martisha McDonald of Collierville, TN, and Parnell Dean (Shamieka) of Clarksville, TN; 2 honorary children Roosevelt Dean and Isasha Dean Skinner of West Memphis, AR; 10 grandchildren in which 1 preceded her in death (Jarvis Braddock); 4 great-grandchildren in which 1 preceded her in death (Armani Braddock); 4 sisters Pearly Mae Barrett of Forrest City, AR, Loretha Brooks (Charles) of Marianna, AR, Treva James of Tulsa, OK, and Annie Curne who preceded her in death; 3 brothers, Sylvester McDonald (Carolyn) of Forrest City, AR, Robert Brooks of West Memphis, AR, and Curtis McDonald who preceded her in death; 1 step-brother Brian Johnson of West Memphis, AR and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

“ Wow, a sweet daughter of the Most High God! She loved God, her children and her church family. She displayed Christ's love during her time on earth. We carpooled to church on numerous occasions and she was always loving, patient and encouraging me to walk in love! Her presence on this earth will be missed ☐❤❤🙏🙏🦋

“ Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Brenda was my first cousin, but we were more like sisters. It broke my heart to hear that she had passed away, but I know she is in a better place. The word says to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. She has changed residence and is now residing in her heavenly residence with our LORD and savior. One thing I know is that she was a saved, sanctified, and Holy Ghost filled woman of God. She was also a powerful praying woman. I'm going to miss the long telephone conversations and just hearing her voice. Weeping may endure for a moment, but joy cometh in the morning. Family, look to the hills from whence cometh your help because your help comes from the Lord. Brenda gave you guys a gift and that is she told you about JESUS. Use the the positive things that she instilled in you to carry her legacy out. I love you Lynn, Dale, Tisha, and Parnell.

“ I know your mother had great faith, something that made her a strong woman. May you find comfort in your knowledge that you will be reunited with her.

The legacy She left for you to continue is a blessing not just to you but also the people she and you have come in contact with over the years.

The heart that your mother had for others is a rare gift to the many people who had the privilege to know her and be blessed by her. She was my mother's caregiver for a couple of years and I truly appreciate all she did for her. Please accept my condolences.

“ Dear Mama, I just want to first of all say I miss you. I'm so heart broken but I know what had to be done so that you could get your wings. One minute I'm laughing the next I'm crying but I know you don't want us crying because you always told us don't cry over you because you're going to be with the lord I'm happy that you get to walk through the Pearly Gates Of Heaven but all you left behind is in sorrow now. I can honestly say you don't know how much you miss your mother until she's gone. I want you to rest up now and know I will take care of McFerrin, Martisha and Parnell to the best of my ability. I love you more than life itself. Love your daughter Belinda!!
