Carnell Addison Jr., affectionately known as Mane-Mane, was born in Clarksdale, MS. He was a talented individual with a passion for football and art, graduating from Clarksdale High School in 2018. Lovable, caring, selfless, and genuine, Carnell was true to himself and those dear to him. He loved spending time on the porch, observing nature, and enjoyed Philly cheesesteak and homemade chili, even on the warmest days.

He had the sweetest and brightest smile that could turn a grey day sunny. Carnell loved his family with everything in him and proudly repped his Pisces sign. Compassionate and funny, even when he wasn't trying to be, he didn't care what anyone thought of him. Intelligent and always looking out for the good of others, Carnell constantly sought ways to better himself and those around him. He could put ketchup on anything and would run through a bottle in a week. As a protector, he deeply loved his family and friends.

Carnell's presence will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him. He leaves to cherish his memories his mother Twanda Henley (James Henley, Jr.); his father Carnell Addison, Sr.; his sisters Carneisha Addison "Nene", Tatiana Addison "Tata", Cincere Addison "Fat-Fat"); his brother Dontavious Moore "Tae"; his step-sisters Javonnisha Sutton, Ariaaha Sutton; his nieces Arielle Pollard, Ra'Nyla Sims, and Karnation Grayson; grandparents Gloria Partee (George), Curtis Bell (Valerie), Celia Ellis (Tyrone); close companion Chelniah Pollard; along with his aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

“ Grieving is never an easy process, and it’s not linear either. Some days, it might feel okay, and at a very random moment, you might feel the soul crushing pain that comes with a loss. I’m very sorry for your loss. It shocked me greatly to see the news of my fellow 2018 classmate passing away. I wasn’t as close to him, but I always took classes with him at Kirkpatrick and I’ve been in a few classes with him growing up into middle school and high school. He was always a quiet but funny person, and down to earth as well. I always see him doing his own thing, and I’d usually see him with his friends that seemed inseparable. It’s a great loss for the 2018 CHS family, and even more for to his family.
