“ My deepest sympathies are extended to Nolan and Tiffany; I was truly sorry to hear of the death of Carolyn, my Soror and ASU college classmate. Carolyn and I started our academic years together at Phillips College. She was a dedicated, dynamic, and compassionate person. She was also the consummate professional who mentored both students and colleagues. Her quiet demeanor and positive attitude were always welcomed. She had a wonderful sense of humor, and she encouraged others to do their best. Through the years, she has been a faithful friend. Carolyn will be missed by all of us; now, she can rest in the arms of our Lord. May God Bless your family.

“ I was saddened and shocked to hear news of the passing of Carolyn. We have known each other for 30 plus years. We had our ups and downs but remained friends throughout. She was a loyal, sweet and caring person. I always asked her to critique my work, which she willingly did. She was a very intelligent person, who freely gave of her self. She was a jewel. I will truly miss talking with her. I will always love and respect her and remember her uniqueness. Nolan and Tiffany she was a blessed person. Beverly Vincent. bevhen@sbcglobal.net

“ I was shocked and sat in stunned silence when I heard the news. LORD, my sister is gone. I will always keep you in my heart. Our Sunday School lesson comes from John 14th chapter. So appropriate. I get peace knowing that you are with Jesus now, and you are not lost because you knew the way, and I know where you are and I too know the way. Nolan, Tiffany, know that I love Carolyn and will miss our frequent telephone visits. We will catch up on the news when we meet again.

With much love to my family, Nolan and Tiffany

“ Carolyn was a friendly face at Phillips College that I was blessed to cross paths with when I was hired over 40 years ago. To know Carolyn was to love her. She was kind, thoughtful, generous with her time, and supportive to many throughout the years. She did so much for so many students during the years when I worked with her at the college. She was uplifting, hardworking, and she could be funny when she wanted to be. She was my friend from the beginning when we met until the day that she left us. Her positive easygoing spirit made me want to be a better person. By being her friend I learned to give people the benefit of the doubt and to always go the extra mile to help others less fortunate than myself. Carolyn was one in a million. I am blessed to have known her; and I will miss her dearly. Rest on my dear friend and thank you so much for your friendship. I will never forget you.
