Charles Fleming, II was born, December 11, 1984, to Charles and Lillian Fleming in Memphis, TN. He was the youngest of two siblings. He accepted Christ and joined New Sardis Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. La Simba L. Gray, where he began his walk with the Lord. His early training was provided by his loving parents and sister Stacy. He briefly attended Forrest City High School where he was a member of the basketball team. He graduated from Cordova High School with academic honors and attended The University of Memphis in Memphis, TN.

Charles was lovingly called "Chuckie" by his friends and family. His smile, grin, and the coolness that he possessed will be forever cherished and remembered. His encouraging and courteous personality was powerful. He was a proud Girl Dad and #1fan for his beautiful, precocious daughter, Kayden. Additionally, he served as an encourager to his sister, nephew, cousins, and friends. Because he loved his family, he encouraged us to keep on trying.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving mother, Lillian Fleming, his devoted father, Charles Fleming, a wonderful daughter, Kayden Fleming, a caring sister, Stacy Bailey, a “special” nephew, Justin Flemming, who he treated like a brother, along with his grandnephew, Jaiden and grandniece, Janae Flemming, both of whom he absolutely adored. Additionally, Chuckie will be forever loved and remembered by aunts, uncles, and a host of cousins, from the Fleming and Bailey families.
