“ This still feels like a dream. I will cherish every memory, from childhood throughout our adulthood. We've shared in sorrow and joy and I'm forever grateful to you for being there. I Love You and in your words " GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME" I will miss you.

“ It's hard to grasp that you're gone so soon. I know that God doesn't make mistakes. You're my baby brother, and always acted as if you were the oldest.. I will cherish the fun memories that we shared growing up together. One in particular that resonate with me is when you, and I would play church you would be the Pastor, and I would be the member you would always start off singing & preaching you would say “ You touch my leg, and look at it move, and you will move your leg around” and say “Jesus” we both ended up crying & shouting. I believe those were times like this that our Savior was preparing you for this very moment. I say farewell my beloved brother your legs can move freely without restraints. I will always love, and cherish you always forever in my heart!
