DeMarcus Lamon White was born August 15, 1980 in Forrest City, Arkansas to Mary and William White Jr.

He professed a hope in Christ at an early age, attending Union Grove Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Charles Latham. DeMarcus graduated from Forrest City High School in 1998 and attended Arkansas State University in Jonesboro, Arkansas. He soon began his career at Consolidated Youth Services as a Juvenile Counselor, where he remained until July 2020, after which he started his own business called DeMarcus White Investments. His passion for assisting troubled youth also led him and some of his close friends to start an after-school youth program.

He is preceded in death by his maternal grandparents Rosie Lee and J.C. Cook, and his brother Christopher White.

On October 3, 2021, the Lord called DeMarcus home.

He leaves to cherish his memory his parents Mary and William White of Forrest City, Ar.; grandparents Charlene Neal and William White Sr. of Forrest City, Ar.; two brothers William White III (Felicia) and Brandon White of Forrest City, Ar.; his fiancé Kendra Versie, his daughters Kalen “Kay Kay” White and Kadence Versie, and son DeMarcus White Jr. “DJ” of Jonesboro, Ar.; his uncles Thomas Neal (Virginia) and Jeffrey White of Forrest City, Ar.; aunts Janet Brooks of Forrest City, Ar.; Carolyn Bryant (Larry) of Conway, Ar.; Ernestine Alford of Little Rock, Ar.; Vickie Kearse of Pennsylvania, Belinda Dowling of Pennsylvania, and a host of other relatives and friends. DeMarcus will be truly missed by all that knew and loved him. His legacy will forever live on in our hearts.

“ I believe that sometimes God just makes people extra special...❤️ You are one of those people, DeMarcus. I'm so grateful that God blessed me with the opportunity to know such an amazing person. Life just won't be the same without you here...You are missed so very much. Until I see you again, continue resting in God's perfect love. I know you're up there in heaven having the best time ever...❤️ (And don't try to run things up there, that's God's job...You just rest!)
