Demetrius B. Tripp, affectionately known as "PAC-MAN", was born January 5, 1990 in Forrest City, Arkansas to LaTonya Tripp and Anthony Lyons, Jr. He gained his wings February 28, 2021 at Forrest City Medical Center.

PAC-MAN attended Forrest City High School with the Class of 2008 and continued his education to receive his GED. He confessed his faith in GOD at an early age and attended New Light Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Jesse McClure.

PAC-MAN was filled with an abundance of wonderful personal attributes that are easy to reminisce. He was a confidant; voice of reason and calm; supportive and loving wonderful son, excellent grandson, loving brother, amazing father, exceptional uncle, respectful nephew, caring cousin, and amazing friend; and protective of all he loved and was true defender of his own life. Even in the midst of grief, sadness, and difficulties it is a privilege to recall the many ways in which PAC-MAN was special.

He was preceded in death by maternal grandparents—George Washington Tripp and Claudia Mae "Dean" Tripp; paternal grandfather— Anthony Lyons, Sr.; two uncles—Sterling Barber and Ray Barber; one aunt, Pamela Lyons, and two great aunts—Margaret Ann Barber-Bradley and Patricia Barber.

Pac Man leaves to cherish his memories, children, D'Arius R. Tripp of Forrest City, AR and Zane Tripp of Greenville, MS; mother, LaTonya Tripp (Larry who raised him like his own) Washington of Forrest City, AR; father, Anthony (Angie) Lyons, Jr. of South Bend, IN; father figure, Marlon McShan of Marion, AR; paternal grandmother, Priscilla Clark Lyons of South Bend, IN; siblings, Rochelle A. Dawson, Chris Tripp, Cordara Tripp, Larriel S. Washington, Aza A. McShan, and Kiesha Sanford all of Forrest City, AR; Antoinette Lyons of Chicago, IL; Serina Lyons and Teyanna Lyons of South Bend, IN; brothers, Anthony Lyons, Laz-erkick Lyons, Lazerion Lyons, and Angelo Lyons of South Bend, IN; a host of nieces and nephews: eleven aunts—Pamela Barber, Ellareese Tripp, Tomika Tripp, Niya Tripp, Jamechea Moore, and Tomisha Barber all of Forrest City, Arkansas, Joyce Tripp of Bentonville, AR; Cynthia Lyons, Alexis Givens, and Karen Lyons of Chicago, IL and Sharon Lyons of South Bend, IN; two uncles—Frederick Barber, Sr. of Forrest City, Arkansas and Joseph (Mae) Tripp, Sr. of Pine Bluff, Arkansas; four great uncles—Lloyd (Patricia) Barber of Kankakee, Illinois, Joe Barber, Marvin (Regina) Barber all of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Rickey (Zella) Barber of Forrest City, Arkansas; one great aunt—Linda (Don) Rogers of Tulsa, Oklahoma; He also leaves behind one special aunt—Vyre (M.C.) Smith of Forrest City, Arkansas; two wonderful mothers of his children, Astrin Allen of Forrest City, AR and Briana D. Mouldin of Greenville, MS; cousins, and friends who truly love him.

“ I can't believe I'm writing on your wall saying Rest in Heaven. Pac-Man I'm still in shock. You hit me on Snap out the blue just talking away. I didn't know you were saying your good bye though. The way you loved your sisters and their kids was everything to me. You said you were gonna spoil your mother and sisters to the end and you did. You will be missed dearly. Love you eternity. Yonna ❤️❤️❤️

“ On behalf of my son Shooter I would like say that Pac Man was more than a friend he was his brother. The love they had for one another was unbreakable. He is really hurt behind losing his big brother. Pac Man was a great man all the way around he loved his family. This is a devastating loss to the people that loved him. One thing I know is his legacy will live on. Long live Pac Man you left your mark on this earth and we will miss that beautiful smile.
