Mrs. Dollie Mae Wilson “Sue” Lawson was born July 26, 1949 to the late Morris Wilson and Margie Moore in Marianna, Arkansas. She entered into rest on Friday, February 17, 2023 at St. Bernard Hospital in Jonesboro, Arkansas. Dollie attended Derossitt School in Widener, Arkansas. She worked at the Palestine School Cafeteria, Boar’s Head, BB’s Family Owner Daycare alongside her daughter Barbara, just to name a few of her numerous jobs.

Dollie professed a hope in Christ at an early age under the leadership of Reverend J. H. Ball at First Baptist of Heth, Arkansas. Upon Reverend Ball’s death, a new pastor, Pastor Charles Murray, was installed, and Dollie remained at First Baptist until her health failed in 2022.

Her hobbies were cooking, singing, and mothering many people who weren’t blood related. She helped anyone she came in contact with.

In order for us to reunite at the sweet ole’ bye-and-bye, we MUST get it together and live right today!

Dollie was preceded in death by her parents—Morris and Margie Wilson; sisters—Iola Velma and Doris Cannaday.

She leaves to cherish her loving husband of 55 years—William Lawson; two daughters—Barbara Lawson of Forrest City and Michelle Hillard (Correll) of Forrest City; son— William (Dorothy) Lawson of Forrest City; six grandchildren—Terrell Bobo, Zaria Lawson of Jonesboro, AR, Candice Lawson of Little Rock, Moesha Lawson, Anfernee Lawson, Kobe Lawson of Forrest City; twelve great grandchildren; one great-great grandchild. She leaves behind her brother—Tommie Lee Wilson of Madison, AR; one brother-in-law—Roosevelt Cannaday of Marion, AR; three sisters-in-law—Lizzie Phillips of Jonesboro, Earnestine Lawson of Earle, AR, and Mae Ella Lawson of Forrest City, AR; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

I met Dollie through her sister Doris when we were kids. She was a funny nice lady. May God bless the family.
