

Mrs. Doris Jean Bohannon

April 4, 1947 - April 9, 2024

Doris Bohannon was born April 4, 1947, in Round Pond Arkansas to Neuvertral Jones and Magnolia Robinson.

She accepted Christ at an early age at Cedar Grove M.B. Church under the leadership of Reverend Griggs. She later moved to Forrest City, Arkansas, where she graduated from Lincoln High School, Class of 1965. After graduating, she moved to Chicago, Illinois, where she worked at the Pizza Factory while attending Computer School. In 1971, she returned to Forrest City, Arkansas, where she worked at the Computer Center serving over a hundred banks in this area. After the closing of the Computer Center, she started employment at Sanyo Manufacturing Company, where she worked as a computer operator for 30 years. After retiring from Sanyo, she worked at the Department of Human Service until she became disabled. Doris met and married Mac Bohannon in 1971. No children were born to this union.

Doris never met a stranger. She was loving, caring, and always kept a smile on her face. Doris loved children. She always tried to buy all her nieces and nephews gifts at Christmas. Doris really loved her family. She loved attending family reunions; and even after she became disabled, she was determined not to miss a family reunion, and she never did.

Doris entered heaven's gates Tuesday, April 9, 2024, at Forrest City Medical Center. She was preceded in death by her husband Mac Bohannon, her parents, her sister Lois Ann Smith and her brothers Larry Little and Magnolia Robinson Jr. (his surviving spouse: Marsha).

She is survived by her nephew/special son, Dowvin Williams, her sisters, Barbara Sandifer, Billie Jean Little, and Yvonne Williams of Forrest City, Arkansas, and Gloria Jean Martin of Chicago Heights, Illinois, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
