

Mrs. Dorothea Jean Tinsley

June 19, 1954 - December 24, 2024

Dorothea Jean Tinsley departed this life on Tuesday, Dec. 24, 2024, at Forrest City Medical Center.

She was born on June 19, 1954, in Mayfield, Ky. Dorothea was the only child of the late Asberry Dawson and Lula England Dawson. She graduated from Mayfield High School in 1971. Dorothea went on to attend Murray State University and was initiated into the Eta Upsilon chapter of Delta Sigma Theta, Inc., in the fall of 1973.

Dorothea was married to Melvin Leroy Tinsley in 1977 and moved to Forrest City, shortly thereafter. To this union two sons were born, Nicholas Bradford and Christopher Blake.

Dorothea worked for the Forrest City School District for over 20 years in a number of administrative professional roles. She was beloved by students, parents, staff and administrators throughout her career.

Dorothea loved socializing and fellowshiping with family, sorors, friends and acquaintances in a variety of civic and social settings. Known for her humor, wit and charm, Dorothea leaves behind a legacy of kindness, strength and cherished memories. She will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Dorothea is survived by her loving sons, Nicholas (LaRonda) and Christopher (Sarah); two grandchildren, Avery (granddaughter) and Alexander (grandson), and a host of family and friends.

A celebration of Dorothea's life will be held at a private memorial service in her hometown of Mayfield, Ky. In lieu of gifts of condolence, the family requests that donations be made to the Forrest City Area Alumnae Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Money orders or cashier's checks can be mailed to: Forrest City Area Alumnae Chapter, P.O. Box 1216, Forrest City, AR 72336

Donations may be sent via the chapter's PayPal account (fcaadst@gmail.com). All donations are not tax deductible.
