Elijah Louis Alexander was born October 6, 1936, the first child of the late Elbert Alexander, Sr. and Luella King. This union was blessed with nine children. Elijah confessed hope in Christ at Freedonia Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Frazier. Later he became a member of United Christian Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Anthony D. Latham, now under the leadership of Pastor Willie S. Brown, until his health failed.

He worked at Mid-South Fountain in West Memphis, Arkansas, and he also worked for the city of Forrest City. He also loved working for the Forrest City School District as a custodian. He loved watching wrestling, Westerns, and eating Reese's cups and drinking orange sodas.
