“ See you later my buddy, friend, Cuz..Essie was all these to me and my husband (Wiley R.I.L). I'm going to miss our sometimes one LONG conversation that was enough to last a year. Essie was just at my nephew's house and saw my youngest son. I had asked my son if Essie knew you were Leo's son, he said yes. So I had planned on calling Essie but was to busy for again a LONG conversation. So now it will never happen, I guess now he'll tell his buddy Leo. R.I.L. Essie....Sincere heartfelt condolences to the family...

“ The 67 Class has lost a true and faithful member of the class. He loved his class and we truly loved him. Kept us encouraged and laughing all the time. He was the life of the party at our reunions and he was looking forward to our upcoming #57th. We are still trying to picture our class without Essie but he would say go own I'm fine. Love you Essie and we are thankful for our times together.

My Friend, My Brother, My long ago Running Buddy and Gig Daddy team mate; Twas a Jolt to my Soul and psyche to hear of your departure. Be it known to the family, your love one was an inspiration and joy to many. I hadn't seen him in a few years but the lost in my heart is right now real. May God comfort you in this hour.
