Gertrude Foy was born on November 24, 1957, the eighth child of Clinton and Christine Foy.

Gertrude was baptized at First Baptist Church as a young girl by Pastor G.L. Moore. She later rededicated her life as an adult and was baptized by Pastor Sherman Baker, Sr. She remained a member until her death, under the leadership of Pastor Frank M. Mull, III.

Gertrude was united in marriage to her first husband, Leonard Walker. Together they raised three children, Regina, Paris, and Clenton. Mr. Walker preceded her in death. She later married Kenneth M. McKinney who was a faithful husband, father figure and grandfather.

“ Family of Mrs. Gertrude, She was a great mother to her children, when they were small she would go from one baseball field to the others to watch her children play. After the games were over she always treated them to Mc Donald. She was so proud of her children. and later her grandchildren. Over the years it was her great grand's that she took care. She a sweet mother to lots of children and they were well cared for. Praying for strength and comfort at this sad time.
