

Mrs. Ida Bell Dawson

June 6, 1927 - December 31, 2019

Sister Ida Bell Dawson was born June 6, 1927 to the late Robert and Nellie Scott. She was truly a virtuous woman. She was a faithful member of the Scott Avenue Church of Christ. The family called her “Mudeer”, and everyone called her “Mama” or “Mother”.

She took her rest on Thursday morning, December 31, 2019.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory four daughters—Lillie (Johnny) Chism of Forrest City, Arkansas, Annie (Larry) Lewis of Forrest City, Arkansas, Christine Davison of Memphis, Tennessee, and Sheresa (Herbert) Bowen (a granddaughter she raised as a daughter) of Memphis, Tennessee; four sons—Sylvester Dawson of Hughes, Arkansas, Otis B. Dawson of Forrest City, Arkansas, Peyton (Annette) Dawson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and Michael (April) Dawson of Memphis, Tennessee; a special niece—Betty Jean Pettye; as well as a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, other nieces and nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

“ My grandmother Gussie Lumpkin and Sis Ida Bell were very good friends until the end. My grandmother was heartbroken when Sis Ida Bell passed, but she understands that her friend is in better place, where we all would like to be! My fondest memory is that wonderful, beautiful smile she gave me everytime she saw me. She will forever be in our ❤️. #Rest in love# Rest in Heaven# you will be missed
