“ Omg I know I'm late but I'm just now hearing the news. So hurt behind this. I use to work with Ms. Jackie at Wendy's on Southwest Dr. Oh we had such good times. Full of laughter. She was such a sweet lady. I enjoyed working on her shift. I just can't seem to grasp this. It seems unreal. I hate I miss the funeral if I would have known I would have defiantly been there. Sending my love to your family & keeping you all lifted in prayer. Thank you again for my wedding gift.
Love Bridgett

“ Oh my Auntie Jackie was a force all on her own. Not only was her hair fried, dyed, and laid to the side but her wardrobe could have its own boutique. She was the Olive Branch that introduced me into their family, and was another positive reinforcement in my life other than my Mom while dealing with issues I was faced with in highschool. She always made me feel welcome no matter what the situation tried to dictate. I simply loved her, she was one of my best friends in life and was my ride or die while I was in highschool. Some of my firsts we're with her. Ex. Sneaking into college parties, sneaking into my first club, eating breakfast for dinner afterwards. I am a little hollow from her exit but I know she up there still cheering me on with Koon.
