

Mr. James Rodney "J.R." Walker

September 23, 1980 - June 12, 2025

James Rodney Walker, affectionately known as "J.R.," was born on September 23, 1980, in Forrest City, Arkansas, to McGarland Walker and Mary L. Woods Walker.

At an early age, J.R. was baptized at Salem Missionary Baptist Church, where he developed a strong spiritual foundation that remained with him throughout his life. He received his formal education in the Forrest City School District and went on to lead a purposeful and hardworking life built on determination, resilience, and perseverance.

J.R. was employed by Grasshopper Construction owned by his nephew Eric Walker, where he faithfully served in a leadership role as a manager. He was well-respected for his tireless work ethic, independence, and vibrant personality, which left a lasting impression on everyone he encountered.

He found joy in life's simple pleasures. J.R. loved to have fun and cherished the time spent with his family and friends throughout Forrest City. Whether through his infectious laughter, meaningful conversations, or simply his comforting presence, he had a way of making others feel welcomed, seen, and appreciated.

On Thursday, June 12, 2025, J.R. transitioned from this life at St. Francis Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee. He was preceded in death by his father, McGarland Walker, and siblings: Kevin Walker, Calvin Walker, Scott Walker, Teresa Walker, and Faye Walker.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Mary L. Woods Walker of Frisco, Texas; his children, Kendricka Kidd and Jakhia Walker, both of Jonesboro, Arkansas, and Trinity Walker and Aubrney Walker of Forrest City, Arkansas; and his siblings: Diane Crawford and Roberta Crawford, both of Forrest City, Arkansas, McGarland Walker Jr. of San Diego, California, Aleshia Walker of New York, Shanta Walker of San Diego, California, and Nashira Walker and Eugeneia Walker, both of Frisco, Texas.

He is also lovingly remembered by devoted friends Martin "Rilo" and Calvin Joyce, along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever treasure his memory.

J.R.'s life was a reflection of love, laughter, and perseverance. His legacy will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
