Jeffery Williams was born March 11, 1971 in Forrest City, Arkansas to the late Amos Williams, Sr. and Arena (Poole) Williams. He was the eighteenth of eighteen children born to this union. Both his mother and father as well as brothers, Odell Williams and Ollie Williams, and sisters, Cornella Jones and Carolyn Stideum, preceded him in death.

He attended Central Elementary and Forrest City High School, where he graduated in 1990. After graduation he went to work to help provide for his mom and dad. He later became a Masonic member. He and his loving wife, Leomie (White) Williams were married for fifteen years.

He is survived by his loving wife—Leomie Williams; daughters—Jasylin Williams of Marianna, Arkansas and LaShundra "Sunshine" White of Forrest City, Arkansas; sons—Steve (Tiara) Mathis and Roy (Cansella) White of Forrest City, Arkansas; god-daughter—Taniyla Bean of Forrest City, Arkansas; five brothers—(his twin) Alfred (Wanda) Williams, Amos (Alberta) Williams, Darnell Williams all of Forrest City, Arkansas, Roosevelt Williams of Jonesboro, Arkansas and Charlie (Cynthia) Williams of St. Louis, Missouri; eight sisters—Ethel (Walter) Davis, Joann (Jimmy) Ivory, Shirley Williams,

Addie Hare, Diann Williams, Katherine (Jimmy) Kidd, Elizabeth Williams all of Forrest City, Arkansas, and Beverly (Percy) Hamilton of Jonesboro, Arkansas; fifteen grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family, and friends.

“ My fondest memories of Jeff is that he was a family man! What did I see exactly? I saw a man that loved his wife and his children, despite of what they may have been through. Jeff demeanor if you didn't know him very well you would think that he was mean but from own experience been around him I grew to know him and respect him as a man. Rest In Love kinfolk you'll forever be miss but NEVER forgotten!
