John Wayne Clayborn was born September 26, 1963, to Robert Lee and Georgia Mae Bursey Clayborn in Forrest City, Arkansas.

John spent his early years in Forrest City, Arkansas, where he graduated from Forrest City High School with the class of 1986. Many would describe him as a man of great integrity and a generous man. John was outgoing and kind, with a keen intellect and wonderful sense of humor, John was devoted to and beloved by his family, and he was a loyal friend to so many. John loved the Lord and accepted Christ at an early age and later joined Riverside Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Marland Brown where he served as a deacon. He was a faithful member of the St. Francis Quartet Singing Union. He drove truck local and over the majority of his life. Once he came off the road and served as a custodian at Forrest City Medical Center and worked faithfully until his health failed.

John was preceded in death by his parents Robert Lee and Georgia Mae Bursey Clayborn; stepfather who John loved like his own father, Arthur Lee Gunthrop.

He leaves to cherish eight siblings: six brothers and two sisters: Robert Clayborn, Jr., Charlie Clayborn (Mary Ann), Darryl Clifford Clayborn (Petra), Maxine Slaughter, Lucher "Luke" Clayborn (Shanta), Mary Louise Whiteside, Percy Lee Clayborn, and Mark Paul Clayborn; one aunt, Vinni Edward King; one uncle, Roosevelt Bursey; and host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
