

Miss Johnnie Mae Scott Mickens

August 9, 1950 - February 17, 2026

Mrs. Johnnie Mae Scott Mickens, 75, of Forrest City, Arkansas, gently laid down the cares of this life and entered into eternal rest on February 17, 2026, at the home of her beloved daughter in Conway, Arkansas. She was born on August 9, 1950, in Forrest City, Arkansas, to the late John Henry Scott and the late Lucille Tomlin Mickens.

From an early age, Johnnie Mae's life was anchored in Christ. She confessed a hope in Him at Summerfield Missionary Baptist Church, beginning a lifelong walk of faith that guided her through every season of her life. She later united with Saints' Temple Church of God in Christ, where she served faithfully for many years under the anointed leadership of Pastor Dr. Lewis Bingham. Her life was a living testimony of quiet strength, enduring grace, and unwavering trust in the Lord. She believed that through prayer, love, and kindness, God's light could shine in every situation.

Johnnie Mae was a proud graduate of Lincoln High School, Class of 1969, and furthered her education at East Arkansas Community College, where she earned an Associate Degree in Criminal Justice. She was employed for many years at Sanyo Manufacturing Company until its closing. She walked in integrity and demonstrated a spirit of excellence and dedication in all she did.

She found joy in the simple yet sacred blessings of life. She had a special love for flowers, seeing in them the beauty of God's handiwork. She delighted in helping others and never turned away anyone in need. She also enjoyed collecting cherished items and traveling from place to place in search of special treasures that brought her happiness. In her quiet moments, she enjoyed watching television and spending time in peaceful reflection. She loved people, truly loved them, regardless of how she was treated, reflecting the unconditional love of Christ. Her family and friends were her heart, and she poured into them a love that was pure, steadfast, and whole.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her sisters, Mary Alice Mickens, Diane, and Wilma Jean; and her brother, Carl Henry Scott. She was also preceded in death by those she was reared with as siblings, her nieces and nephews, Edward Nash, Robert Mull, Michael Mull, Johnny R. Mull, Brenda Mull Funches, and Diane Mull Roach.

Yet we do not sorrow as those who have no hope, for we know that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

Cherishing her precious memories and carrying her legacy of faith and love are her devoted children, Phyllis E. Mickens McDonald (Kenneth), Gregory Smith (Stephanie), and Andrea Key (Christopher); ten grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; her loving sisters, Gustavia Byrd, Joyce Fisher, Cliffie Jean Scott, Patricia Smith (Larry), Sharon Brooks, Alberta, and Patricia Scott Byers; her nephew reared as a brother, Ressie Don Mull, Sr. (Darlene); a special friend with whom she shared many cherished memories, Charles Caldwell; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

Her life was a garden of kindness, her hands were instruments of service, and her heart was a dwelling place for God's love. Though she has exchanged her earthly house for a building not made with hands, eternal in the heavens, her gentle spirit will continue to bloom in the lives of all who knew and loved her.

“Well done, thy good and faithful servant... enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.”

“ I met Mrs. Johnnie 20 + years ago when I owned Rascals & More resale shop in Forrest City. I promise she came in most every day, she said it was her therapy! She loved looking thru every rack, one piece at a time. And she LOVED clothes and jewelry! No doubt thru the years she spent thousands of dollars at Rascals. I loved her, the girls that worked for me loved her! She was easy to love! I ran into her at Walmart a few months ago and we just hugged each other so tight. I had called and talked to her since I had closed but hadn't actually seen her. She looked good, said she was fine. Never dreamed it would be the last time I saw her. My sincere condolences to her children and family. I sure loved Mrs. Johnnie!

“ Sending the family love. Words cannot express how I will miss Johnnie's voice and her laugh. She enriched my life and it was a blessing to have known her. She was the sweetest person and treated everyone with kindness, even some that did not deserve it. She taught me lessons that I will take through life. I spent so many days with her in Lincoln Circle. She opened her home and heart and allowed me to become part of her family. I will always hold her children in my heart and thoughts. Rest well my dear sister friend.

“Dearest Cousin Johnnie Mae and I shared so many beautiful times together as children on Sundays at our "Family Gatherings". It seems we were at a Tomlin, or Weaver Family member's home nearly every Sunday of the month, mainly after church, of course. The first cousins romped and played, and played and romped until dinner! Then, we'd be called in to dinner for comfort food to fill our hungry stomachs. Fried chicken and/or fish, cabbage, greens, mashed potatoes, string beans, corn bread, biscuits and wonderful desserts! Oh, how Johnny Mae and I cherished and loved to reminisce about those times.

Sending Blessings for God's Mighty Hand to Comfort and Strengthen her children and their families; Phyllis Elaine, Gregory Sherman, and Andrea.

Also, sending Blessings for God's Mighty Hand to Comfort and Strengthen her sisters and their families; Joyce, Patricia (Bobbie), Cliffie Jean, Patricia, Sharon, and Alberta.

Blessings of Comfort and Peace to her grandchildren, and nieces, nephews, other loved ones and friends.

Her first cousins remember her quiet, gentle and loving spirit. We thank God for her life.

“ Mama Johnnie demonstrated a heart of kindness and grace on this side of heaven. I'm thankful for her steady heart and her willingness to always be there for her loved ones. Her home was a place of love-safety that my own parents trusted. She was a neighborhood Mama, and I'll always remember/honor her steadiness and contribution to my upbringing. Soar high in your new body, Mama Johnnie! You are forever loved/adored!
