Jonathan Burgess, Sr. affectionately known as "B.B." was born May 12, 1953 to Amos "Dad" and Rosie Lee Burgess. He was the second child and oldest son of twelve children.

Jonathan received his high school diploma from Lincoln Senior High School in Forrest City, Arkansas, where he participated in football and art clubs.

Jonathan married the love of his life, Alma Golatt Burgess, on December 16, 1973. They were blessed with six children: Kenneth Burgess, Karen Burgess, Leonard Burgess, Jonathan Burgess, Jr., Jeffery Burgess, and Tracey Burgess.

Jonathan was known as a farmer, hard worker, provider, exceptional musician, landscaping (cutting grass) where he relaxed in serving others, and above all an outstanding husband. Quartet groups from everywhere looked forward to "B.B." showing up to play for their group. He sang with his father's group, The Delta Jublairs for 56 years and was a founding member and musician. "B.B." was a generous man who quietly took care of others. He loved music. He had the uncanny ability to play all sorts of musical instruments well. He played the piano, flute, the guitar (bass and lead which was his favorite.) He lived a full, wonderful life. He was the rare person who exceeded his dreams. He personified the best of the work ethic. "B.B." worked for W.M. Barr in Memphis, TN for many years. He served in many roles at Cedar Grove Church of Jesus Christ in Round Pond, Arkansas. He often referred to himself as a historian. He told captivating stories to the church family and youth department. Many of those stories will forever be cherished. He was a faithful member there all of his life where he was saved at an early age. He served as a deacon and musician.

Jonathan was preceded in death by his father, mother, brother: Freddy Burgess, and sisters: Pearlene Barnett and Bernetta Jones.

“ To my Dad, I miss you dearly today. I never imagined this day, one I would have to carry on without you. I miss talking to you, disagreeing with you and most of all you challenging me. What I wouldn't give to see your name on my phone and to hear you say, "can you go on the computer and find me a part." If only Google could give me my Dad back... Love & Miss you BB.
