Kathy Lynn Jones Clark, 67, of Forrest City, Arkansas, passed away at St. Bernards Medical Center in Jonesboro, Arkansas on July 28, 2020 after a long illness.

Kathy was born June 23, 1953 in Forrest City, Arkansas to John Cecil and Annette Parker Jones. Her parents, older brother, Anthony, and former husband, Donald Clark, preceded her in death.

Kathy was a life-long resident of Forrest City and was a former employee of The Times Herald Newspaper, as well as being a paraprofessional in the Special Education Department of the Forrest City School District for twenty-three years. She was a dedicated employee, trustworthy friend, and exceptional mother, who dearly loved enriching the lives of her students, fellow co-workers, her family, and all who she encountered in her life.

She leaves behind her loving daughter and only child, Jennifer Annette Clark, of Bono, Arkansas; a niece, Ashley Jones Hennessey, of Forrest City; and her children, Liam and Lilly; a sister-in-law, Linda L. Jones, also of Forrest City; and a host of other family and friends.
