Kelvin Jerome Daniels, son of Annette Daniels and the late Lafayette White, was born on April 19, 1980, in Texarkana, Texas. Kelvin is a graduate of the Texas High School class of 1998. Kelvin is also a graduate of the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, where he formed lifelong bonds and became a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Fall 1999 Kappa Upsilon Chapter (Soulja Blu).

Kelvin found peace when he accepted Christ into his life and felt comforted by God's love. He was baptized at Mount Orange Baptist Church under the leadership of Dr. S.A. Stuckey. His family is reassured and thankful that he made this spiritual connection. Kelvin's spirit will continue to live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him, and his memory will remain a blessing to all.

Kelvin was a passionate supporter of the San Francisco 49ers, always cheering for his favorite team with great dedication while rooting against the Dallas Cowboys with equal passion. Kelvin was also known for his love of grilling, proudly calling himself a "Grill Master." He enjoyed cooking up delicious meals for his family and friends and bringing people together so that he could brag about his skills.

Kelvin is preceded in death by his father, Lafayette White, and his grandparents, Earnestine Davis, Charlie Daniels, and James Childs.
