He made my little sister so happy, shared hopes and dreams with her, prayed with her, & showed her true love. They weren't just lovers; they were best friends and a soul as beautiful as his will never be replaced. We love you peanut xoxox

Peanut is my cousin, though I only met him just over a year ago. Right away I knew he was special. He flashed that (well known)big infectious smile as he introduced himself to me as Liz's son. With patience and a toothy grin he gave me the phonetic pronunciation of his name "Ken taw ree us" three or four times until I got it right. The gentleness, compassion and support I saw him give to his cousins and his mom at his grandmother's funeral left quite an impression on me. When our family reconnected at a family cookout last Aug., I was elated and taken back that Peanut and Deon came to Pine Bluff to hang out with us old folks. We had a great time. Peanut loved his family! He was our pure-hearted, ambitious, regal and humorous young king. We love and miss you. What a sweet soul...
