Our Beautiful Kim Michelle Lewis was born on October 8, 1972, in Chicago Illinois, to Milton Lewis and the late Edna Mae Thompson-Lewis. At the age of 50, Kim went to be with the Lord on December 6, 2022.

As a child growing up in Chicago, Kim enjoyed spending time with her family and helping her mother around the house. During that time, Kim also took a special interest in fashion and shopping. When Kim became a teenager, her admiration for fashion became a reality when she started working in various clothing stores. Kim also attended Cregier Vocational High School and Crane Medical Prep High School in Chicago. Throughout her schooling, Kim joined the band, the chorus and ran track prior to relocating to Forrest City, Arkansas with her mother and sister. Kim was baptized at a very early age at Progressive Baptist Church in Chicago, Illinois.

Kim, later became a member of Prayer House of Deliverance Church in Memphis Tennessee, near Arkansas, where she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior.

On January 4, 1995, Kim was blessed with a beautiful baby girl, whom she named Veronica Michelle Lewis. Kim welcomed her only daughter into the world with love and affection as she continued to work hard to provide for her daughter. Kim never gave up on her dream to go back to school to get her education. During that time, Kim made a courageous decision to further her education by obtaining her high school diploma. The following year, Kim enrolled in college, as she was determined to pursue her true passion to become a nurse. Kim had a strong desire for helping others and wanted to make a difference in their lives. Kim's loving family and friends supported her dream of becoming a nurse.

Our Dear Kim had three siblings: her elder sister, Angeline Lewis-Burgess, Nathaniel Lewis, and the late Milton Lewis Jr.

Kim is survived by her daughter, Veronica Michelle Lewis, her grandson, Latrell D. Lewis, her father, Milton Lewis, and her sister and brother; Angeline Lewis- Burgess and Nathaniel Lewis and her niece, Chanelle Lewis.

Kim loved her family dearly and leaves to mourn a host of other relatives and friends of whom she also cherished.
