May 12, 1927 - December 30, 2025

Mother Lena B. Walker, a revered matriarch, servant leader, and woman of enduring faith, was born on May 12, 1927, to Leroy Jarrett and Louvenia Anderson in Marvell, Arkansas. In 1963, she began her career at Cedar Lodge Nursing Home, where she faithfully served with compassion and dedication until her retirement. Her commitment to service extended beyond her profession, as she served on the Marvell City Council, was an active member of the Precious Jewel Electa

Chapter No. 108, Order of the Eastern Star, and sang faithfully with the Marvell Community Choir.

Music was one of Mother Walker's greatest passions and ministries.
