“ I will truly miss my brother. The one memory of many memories I have about Leroy is bringing me fish every time I visit. Leroy knew I love some fresh fish cooked. He would take time out of his schedule and go fishing for me. Every time, I looked forward to seeing him and those wonderful fish. It is hard to know that I cannot call you and just talk. But I know your heart was pure, and you are in a better place. I love you, little brother.

“ The bravest feeling a girl can have is to surround by her brothers. I will miss the 5:30 am call from him, his excuse was that he knew I went to work early, but if truth to be told, my brother Leroy (rabbit) Smith went to bed with the chicken. 😊 My world will never be the same, but I will hold the memories of you close to my heart for the rest of my days. Only my sole is saying good bye.

“ When I take time to think about our past and see all the things we have done together, it says a lot about our family. Leroy(Rabbit) and I went on dates together. He let me drive before I was old enough to get my license. We delivered furniture and fixed appliances together. We owned an Exxon Service Station together. We farmed and worked in the fields together. And it was not always pleasant because we disagreed on a few things like brothers do. Leroy, you will be missed.

Your Brother, Oscar

“ *I know that no matter what, you will always be with me.
When life separates us in the world as we know,
I'll know it is only my soul is saying goodbye to your body, but your spirit will be with me always. I will always remember the you starting our conversation with (how's it going "doc") and ending with (see you later "doc"). See you later big brother and may your spirit continue to be a blessing to us all.*

*Your baby brother,
Garry L. Smith*
