“ I can remember Jennifer and I being able to visit the farm when Uncle Mike had his trailer out there and Aunt Frances had hers. I remember that we were playing and Michelle was riding her bike and got flipped over the handle bars. She got hurt pretty bad but she only cried a little. She was always tough and quite stubborn.

I also remember that damn turkey always chasing us.

“ I have several memories.

We had horses growing up. Michelle, Alisha, and Kris were on one of the horses and after a few minutes this horse decided he was done with the ride. He bucked all 3 off. Michelle, Alisha, and Kris went flying. Tears were shed by all.

Michelle used to be a baton twirler. She was in "Sandy's Stars" with me and Alisha. They always put us behind the horses and you would have to adjust your step accordingly. Michelle was pretty good with that Baton.

“ Have you ever watched a war movie where one guy is willing to jump on a bomb to save everyone around him? That was my sister! When we were kids, we were playing in the bedroom on the top bunk bed. I knocked a huge hole in the sheetrock by kicking it and my parents were pissed. They wanted to know who did it but I wasn't about to own up to it because I knew what would happen. Michelle didn't even hesitate, she took that whoopin and never said a word but it ate at me for years. I don't think I ever owned up to it but I owe her! I will tell her when I see her again.
