Isaiah 41:10: Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

Mack Norris Jr. was born December 18, 1935, in Haynes, AR to Mack and Rosie Fields Norris. Being the seventh out of nine children. Mack's eight siblings loved and spoiled him. Mack accepted Christ at an early age. He attended New Mt. Zion Church Elementary School in Haynes, AR. He furthered his education at Lincoln High School in Forrest City, AR. Mack mastered various jobs from machinery at Pepsi, farming, and working on cars. Mack was incredibly talented, and self-taught himself numerous jobs. Mack was always willing to fiddle on cars, trucks, or anything with a motor. Now, if you wanted to be entertained, you only needed to be at Mack's house on Saturday mornings during wrestling (but you better not talk, nor cross in front of the television)!

Mack met Corine Marshbank and they were wed in holy Matrimony in 1956 in Haynes, AR. To that union they were blessed with five children, and they created many memories. Later in life, he met and married Leola Parks-Finley and three children were added to that union.

On February 1st, 2023, at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Little Rock, AR. Mack passed away peacefully.

Mack was preceded in death by his parents Mack Norris Sr., and Rosie Fields Norris; siblings; Robert Garrett, O'Dessie Droughn, James Norris, Hannah Howard, Ethel Norris, Dorthulia Robinson, Mary Hopkins, and brother-in-laws; Roosevelt "Pete" Howard, Joe Hopkins, Walter "Buddy" Howard, Charlie "Charlie Pop" Robinson, and Lonnie C Marshbank.

Life's legacy is not about how much you leave behind, it's more important who you leave behind that love you!
