“ I met Mark many years ago when I was in High School. He would come to Grobmeyer Circle to play basketball in the evenings.

My condolence to his family-daughter, grands, siblings, nieces, nephews, & other family & friends.

Arielle, my heart is truly hurting for you; I know that God & time will give you a sense of peace.

I wish everyone that knew & loved Mark to be strong & be strengthen by God.

“ Mark was my best friend from the moment we met. He gave me the blue sometimes but over all he made me happy, he made me feel loved, I know he loved me and only wanted to Best for me. I have a zillion good memories that will last me a lifetime. We talked about the past but lately we talked about a future that now I have to live out alone. I'm going to miss you Mark you have gone and left US behind. My heart hurts now not just for me but your mom, daughter and those sweet granddaughters your sisters and brothers. I loved you yesterday, today and tomorrow...I will love you forever 🥰 My deepest condolences to you the family my GOD HOLD YOU ALL TIGHT AND CLOSE TO HIM IN THIS HOUR 🙏🙏
