

Mr. Marvin "Roho" Williams Jr.

October 19, 1948 - August 4, 2025

Marvin Williams Jr., affectionately known as "Roho," was born on October 19, 1948, to the late Marvin Williams Sr. and Learmander Stevenson in Madison, Arkansas. Marvin transitioned from his earthly life on August 4, 2025, at his home in Widener, Arkansas, surrounded by his loved ones.

Marvin confessed Christ at an early age. In his later years, he rededicated his life to God and became a member of New Rising Sun M.B. Church under the leadership of Rev. James L. Brooks, where he served as a devoted deacon until his health began to fail.

To know "Roho" was to love him. Many will cherish fond memories of his BBQ, fishing skills, laughter under the shade tree, genuine friendships, love for his family, and, for sure, his loud trash-talking that was bound to happen anytime the Pittsburgh Steelers played.

Marvin was preceded in death by his parents, Marvin Williams Sr. and Learmander Stevenson; his sister, Lois Williams; two brothers (cousins), Melvin Thomas (Annie Bee) and Carl Winters (Leanna); one son, Clinton Sanders; two daughters, Shirley Sanders and Janice Curtis; and four grandchildren, Travis Calvin, Rodney Franklin, Clinton Franklin, and Marcus Bobo.

He leaves to cherish his memories his loving and devoted wife, Lillian Williams, of the home; seven children, Oteria Wafford of Widener, Arkansas, Sylvester Curtis (Pearl) of Stockton, California, Robert Sykes (Letha) of Jonesboro, Arkansas, Kelly McShan (Denarius) of Jonesboro, Arkansas, Melinda Davis of Jonesboro, Arkansas, Arlando Lewis of Cordova, Tennessee, and Kevin Siggers of Jackson, Tennessee; his loving and supportive brother (cousin) who stood by his side until the very end, Jerry Thomas (Hazel) of Madison, Arkansas; two special cousins, Cleveland Moore of Chicago, Illinois, and Guy Watson Jr. (Bonnie) of Widener, Arkansas; sixteen grandchildren; seventeen great-grandchildren; twelve great-great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
