Mellede (Franklin) Duff was born on December 24, 1941, to John Henry Franklin and Laura Delia Ware in Aberdeen, Mississippi. She transitioned to eternity with her Lord on June 27, 2023, in Dallas, Texas.

Mellede graduated from Lincoln High School in 1959. She went on to enjoy caring for her family and working for Warick Manufacturing for several years before returning to school and earning her cosmetology license in 1984. Mellede retired in 1988.

Affectionately regarded as "Moby" and "D. Mello", Mellede united in marriage with Jessie Guyton, Jr. in 1963. The two remained united until 1981. In 1983, she united in marriage with Robert Duff, with whom she remained until his passing in 1988.

A long-time resident of Forrest City, Arkansas until 2013, Mellede relocated to Dallas, Texas, to reside with her daughter, Resia. Among many hobbies, she loved to work crossword puzzles, and watch Wheel of Fortune and Family Feud.

Mellede accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and joined the Church of God in Christ. She remained steadfast in her faith. She was a role model for young adults, a model citizen, and a generous giver. Her greatest achievement was raising her five beautiful children to become intelligent, loving, responsible, and caring adults.

She will be fondly remembered for her ruby red lipstick, fashionista style, and love for jewelry. Classy, sassy, and full of life, Mellede will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

She was preceded in death by her parents; daughter, Curlie Legette; daughter-in-law, Tolise Guyton; five sisters, Laurine Burks, Pauline Lawshea, Bobby Lydle, Mable Wymes, Vernice Williams, and Shirley Butler; and two brothers, Jack Franklin and John Franklin, Jr.

Those left to cherish precious memories include her four children - Joyce Guyton-White (Doug) of Chicago, Illinois, Steve Guyton of Forrest City, Arkansas, Carl Guyton of St. Louis, Missouri, and Resia Robert of Dallas, Texas; seven grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; three sisters - Helen Hull, Oeinta Mason, and Juanita Williams; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Local Texas arrangements are IN THE CARE OF Chamberland Funerals & Cremations.

“ To Our Family/Cousins (Joyce, Stevie, Resia & Carl): Please accept our heartfelt/warmest/deepest condolences. We are there with you in spirit! And our thoughts and prayers are with you always. Cousin Charles and Jessie M. Franklin

Just so you know...in place of flowers...Charles and I sent you a Large Spathiphyllum Plant called "The Peace Lily" which symbolizes the rebirth of a soul. It stands to celebrate a life and the continuation of of their spirit. (And as evergreen plant...it will also continue to produce flowers). But, I don't see it on this site. I posted it on the obituary under the Lincoln website last night (where you will find it). Please let me know if you received it! PRAYERS GOING UP!

“ My oh my, my sweet grandma. We can never question the lords work, but we know you are in good hands with him. We can't be selfish here on earth when the lord calls our people home. All we should do is cherish the wonderful moments we share with them, and make lasting memories. I am going to miss the good old days being a kid and coming down south with my dad to Forrest City and staying with you at your place. Oh the good fun times!! First time meeting you, you took me under your wing so fast. Our talks, our laughs we shared were the best. You had the most comfortable bed ever! We would talk for like 30 mins and then next thing I knew I was waking back up 3 hours later from a good nap. Lol. If someone let a fly in, it's was going to be a problem, lol. If you didn't leave those shoes at the door, it was going to be a problem, lol. If you took a bath and got a bunch of water on that floor, it was going to be a problem, lol. If that doesn't scream a strong black queen, I don't know what does. You lived by standards, and you liked nice things, and you wanted things in order. You smelled good EVERY TIME! You had the finest jewelry on. Your house smelled clean and your floors were spotless. I learned so much from you and I will never forget all the great things you taught me growing up. It was a pleasure having you in my life and it was a pleasure to call you GRANDMA MEMAW. Until we meet again, and I can't wait to see you again. I love you dearly, and will miss you. Your grandson, Carl Michael Guyton.
