“ I will always remember Banks, That's what I've always known him by every since I've know him as a young child way back in the 60's. Banks will be greatly missed by many he was a great listener and mentor to me when ever I needed advice he never has turned his back on me. He instilled in me what hard work was and what the outcome of what your results will be if you put your all into it. Yes he was a very excellent contractor hardworker and laborer and very fair in his prices, I feel that's why the business is still around until this day. Because he instill those same values into his children. My thoughts, prayers ,and condolences goes out to the family and know he will forever be missed by many.
