

Mother Nora Steverson

April 26, 1919 - September 18, 2019

Nora M. Brown was born April 26, 1919 to her proud parents, Uliar and Emma Brown in Quito, Tennessee. Nora attended school in Quito, where she finished her course. She found Christ at an early age under the guidance of her parents.

Nora married Jim Clark, and to this union three sons were born—James (deceased) (Hazel), Robert, and Clarence. She later in life married Jeffro Steverson, and nine more siblings were added to the family.

Nora had eight siblings, six of whom preceded her in death—Obie, Simon, Robert, Iona, Joanna, and Thelma. She is also preceded in death by two sons—James and Rothelus.

She leaves to treasure her memory one sister—Mary Holland (James); one brother—Clarence Brown (Mearl); ten children—Robert, Clarence (Alberta) Shirley, Ethelrene, Billy (Deborah), Calvin, Juanita (Herbert), Alfred (Lisa), Joseph, and Linda; fifty grandchildren, one hundred and twelve great grandchildren, and fourteen great-great grandchildren. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, friends, and many church and other family members.

Mother Nora Steverson was a member of Greater Mt. Olive Outreach Ministry under the leadership of her son, Pastor B. W. Steverson. She held many offices and was always ready to play a part in activities that went on at the church.

We will forever cherish her memories.
