Patricia Lynn Crippen, “Madoo”, was born November 17, 1960 in Sioux City, Iowa to Raymond Crippen and Sharyl Mann. She accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior at an early age at St. John Missionary Baptist Church and later joined the Union Hill Missionary Baptist Church in Palestine, AR. Patricia was full of laughter and joy throughout her life. She was known to her children and grands as Madoo, but the youngest daughter had her own special name for her mother, which was Bamm. Madoo demonstrated attributes in hard work, kindness towards others, and a profound commitment to her family! She lived most of her life in Madison/Forrest City, AR. Patricia maintained working outside the home at TA Truck Stop until she was injured.

Patricia wanted to be an example for her grandchildren, so she spent countless hours preparing for her high school diploma. In 2011 she became a proud graduate of Cornerstone Christian Correspondence School. Although Madoo endured many health conditions, she was a fighter who lived a great life and will be missed by all who knew and loved her. Patricia transitioned to eternal life on February 10, 2023. She was preceded in death by her parents—Raymond Crippen and Sharyl Mann; a brother— Russell Hiner; and grandson—Nathan Stegall.

She leaves to cherish her memories two sons—Corey (Shurunda) Crippen of Jonesboro, AR and Anthony (Jeanette) Crippen of Forrest City, AR; two daughters—Angela and Carnisha Crippen of Forrest City, AR; 11 grandchildren—Calia Crippen, Mariah Lattimore, Bethany Crippen, Courtney Crippen, Keonta Crippen, Cydney Crippen, Antwanique Williams, A’Niyah Crippen, Tarvarious Crippen, Alena Smith, Anthony Crippen, Jr.; a bonus granddaughter— Megan Ramsey; one sister—Kimberly Rodgers; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, other relatives, and many friends.

Although Patricia may be gone from this earthly realm, she will live in our hearts forever!

“ Lord, I know this was your plan but somehow us as humans and loved ones somehow don't understand. I'm trusting you Lord for setting my dear friend free and taking her home where there's no more pain and suffering. Pat, ma you will truly be missed. You were my friend, God knew what he was doing when he put us in each other's path. We had and earned our own village, our families will continue to love one another just as you would want. I'll never compare to you Pat but I promise you I'll always love my bonus kids and be there in any way I can. My friend, just know I love, so glad we were always in our Big family together. I will miss you but also will know you will be watching over us from heaven. Rest, and I will see you one day in Heaven. All my love, Cheryl Matthews and Family!
