“ To my nephew who I also called my son . I remember when my brother & your mom moved to Cleveland I was so excited to see you guys. You always asked can you come over & the answer was yes . You where a little shy at first but adjusted quick once you seen all them games and rides you can play with Dede. Y'all where so close anywhere I went you and Dede was in the back set . I remember I use to play Ray Jr 'Biggie' you told me one day while we was driving Auntie Nelle play that one song called Biggie, I knew exactly who you were talking about. I played it we turnt up in the car that day . Since you passed on I've been playing that song keep hearing your voice telling me to play it . Even tho it was a song kids weren't suppose to listen to but I'm Auntie. I'm still in disbelief nephew Auntie will Love You Forever and Always. Any time I talked on the phone to your dad or mom you where always the first person I ask for "where is my son" . It breaks my heart I'm not going to be able to say those words when I speak with them again. Life will not be the same without you ,that smile you had who can forget about it 'Nobody' you were so funny I remember when Mike asked you and Dede what y'all wanted to be when y'all grow up you said "Dede want to be a stripper " omg we all laughed so hard that day . I remember your favorite saying was "Not at all" when one of the kids was talking to you . I gave you the nick name table crum, when I told your mom your Nick Name she laughed so hard . You will always be my baby till this day you will still be my son. You might not be here physically but your memories will live on . You will always have a place in my heart my love . It's never goodbye Quincy it's till we meet again my love. Auntie will forever keep your name alive because you live through us now . The last words we said to each other was I Love You when your dad was on FaceTime with us . If I would've known that would be my last time speaking with you and seeing your face I would of stayed on the phone a little longer 🥹💔 Sleep well nephew/son Auntie Nelle Loves you deeper than words can explain ❤️❤️❤️❤️🕊️📧
