“ First I want to give my deepest sympathy to Mother Lane, Pastor Lane and the Willis Temple family. I only got to no Deacon Lane for a short period of time, however whenever I would to Forrest City for Pastor Lane and Lady Lane anniversary Deacon Lane always had a smile on his face and would say the kindest things to me. He always welcome me when I would come to the city. Deacon will be greatly missed. I'm praying for you and the entire family and church family.

“ Deacon Robert Lane was one of my favorite deacons of all time. I grew up around him as a young Saint at Nineveh Temple COGIC. I remember when God saved him. He was a great example of a man after God's own heart. Love and prayers to Missionary Lane and this wonderful family.
