“ Hi Ruth, I've just found out about your death. That is so sad that you had to go out that way, I really feel for you and will never forget you Ruthie, You will be in my heart forever. You were a great mate of mine in Mito, Japan, you looked after me, brought me up and were such an unforgettable magnet, loads of charisma, loads of Japanese friends and style, you had it all and such a dear person. Not only in Japan but in the States -- Little Rock, Madison, I travelled from Australia to meet you and share the winter, my first in the States and had the privilege of meeting your beloved Mom, and loving family. You also came to Australia twice to visit me, experiences I'll never forget. You promised me that we would be friends forever, you were my guiding light, you brought your Southern loving to me. Through you, I met your beautiful family, something I never thought would happen and was welcomed. Such a spirited, world travelling, cosmopolitan woman! What a great mate Ruthie!

Your friend forever,

Tim Barbon xoxo

“ Dear Sweet Ruthie, I am so lost for words, saddened and confused. I know that you were and still are so very special and dear to my heart. I love you like an sister. I enjoyed so much when we would talk on the phone. It tickled me cause you would call late at night and it would be morning there for you in Japan and I would fuss everytime saying it was time for me to go to bed Lol... You would laugh everytime, but you knew I was joking with you. You always, always asked about my children and my Daddy and I would gladly tell you about them all the time. We would sit and talk about when Mama had to go get her Aunt in Kansas and you stayed with my sister and I at home. We had sooooo much fun with you. We cooked, stayed up late, you introduced us to sardine and onion sandwiches lol, you were driving us places and could barely do that because you were a horrible driver, but we hung on for dear life and enjoyed every but of it. So much fun...I wish that I would had been able to send you those items you asked for last year. I know you would had enjoyed them. People always say they wish they could have just one more time or one more day and I do wish that, but I know we will see each other again one day. I pray and hope you enjoyed the videos that Emily showed you and I pray they were comforting to you. I miss you and love you Ruthie Ann Latham.

Your Friend,
Lonese

“ Ruthie and I met while we were both students at Ouachita Baptist University. She always commanded a room when she walked in - a tall beauty. Ruthie loves her coffee and cigarettes. We would be up all night talking and laughing about everything. Whenever we talked on the phone we talked for hours. I miss Ruthie so much and still can't believe she is gone. Love you girl and till we meet again!

“ Ruth will be dearly missed of course. Her warm smile will forever be in my thoughts. Recall when she had breast surgery some of you could not believe how much Ruth and I were built alike. I was in awe of Ruth how well read that she was. She could speak Japanese fluently. We laughed so many times together. We spent holidays together and many meals together. Linda Thomas was part of that gathering. The three of us were best of friends. I am sorry her genius is gone from the world. God bless her, I am hurt and devastated by her demise. I hope she is truly at peace and resting well. All of us wish we could have been there for her as she was ill and transitioned.
God Bless, 🙏
Love you Ruth

*Ruthie and I went to college together, after graduation we rented together as roommates. I will always with great fondness remember those evenings of macaroni and cheese and spam! Not because that was all we knew how to cook, it as all we wanted to take time to cook. We always felt we had better things to do than cook. What a wonderful friend, I will always remember her. Till we meet again, Dr. Ruth❤️.

The passing of Ruth has hit hard. I am grateful for Ruth's presence and sense of relationship in my life in Madison, Wisconsin, and in the broader collective of living that she was a part of building. Ruth Latham will not be forgotten. Her sense of mind, artistry, strength and purpose, which I continued to witness, will live on. My sincerest condolences go out to her family.

Our family love "Sensai" Ruth, and became friends with her in Madison, Wisconsin when she taught a volunteer Japanese Calligraphy class you children in our neighborhood. She always made it feel as if we were doing her a favor, and that she got more out of the class than the students. We love you Ruth - thank you for being such a kind, giving, genuine friend.
