

Miss Shamirka Davadia Shakiah "Shay-Shay" Stackhouse

March 24, 1998 - February 11, 2026

Shamirka Davadia Shakiah Stackhouse, affectionately known to all who loved her as “Shay-Shay,” departed this life on February 11, 2026, surrounded by the unwavering love of her family.

Shay-Shay was born on March 24, 1998, in Helena, Arkansas, to her loving parents, Shemika Braggs Booth and Houston Stackhouse III. She was educated in the Helena-West Helena School District and proudly graduated from Central High School, Class of 2016.

Shay later found joy in her work at Sephora, where her warm smile and genuine spirit left lasting impressions on customers and colleagues alike.

Soft-spoken yet sassy, gentle yet confident, Shay-Shay possessed the sweetest and most genuine spirit. Those closest to her lovingly called her “Black Barbie,” “Cabbage Patch,” and “All America,” nicknames that reflected both her beauty and her vibrant personality. She loved to dance and found joy in music.

At an early age, Shay gave her life to Christ at Still Standing Ministries in West Helena, Arkansas. There, she faithfully danced for the Lord, expressing her devotion through praise. Shay loved the Lord with her whole heart.

Shamirka was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Larry and Davadia (“Dee”) Braggs; her paternal grandmother, Donna Marie Dismuke; her uncles, Jason Braggs and Phillip D’Anthony Stackhouse; her beloved maternal great-grandmother, Alberta Wolfe; and her great-grandparents, William Sr. and Lula Sworn Braggs.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory her loving mother, Shemika (Odell) Booth; her father, Houston Stackhouse III, of Little Rock, Arkansas; two sisters, Jameshia Simmons of Memphis, Tennessee, and Diamond Smith of Horn Lake, Mississippi; four brothers, Demarion Booth of Marvel, Arkansas, Demarious Trice of Memphis, Tennessee, Houston Stackhouse IV of Denver, Colorado, and James Stackhouse of Houston, Texas. She also leaves her paternal great-grandmother, Leona Lockridge; her grandfathers, Houston (Kemico) Stackhouse Jr. and Elder McArthur Dismuke; her uncle, James Stackhouse; her cherished nieces, Journee’ and Karlie, who were like her own children; her bonus brother, Kevontez Wright; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family members, and friends who will forever hold her memory close.

Forever our Shay-Shay.

“ When I first met shay I thought she was mean as all outdoors but as we started working together at Sephora in the Dunnage we got closer and closer. Her mother Shemika always called me her sister so they started considering me they Auntie a when I tell you me her and Kevontez was like the three amigos running the Dunnage we did not play. Im going to miss you my girl you will always be in my heart. #Forever27. Love Letitia
