Shannon Terrell Parchman, affectionately known as "PETERMAN", after 26 years of gracing the presence of the lives of those he encountered, made his final journey Thursday, June 10, 2021, in Forrest City, Arkansas. He was born August 31, 1994, in Forrest City, AR to Levette Hill Parchman and Renardo Parchman, Sr.

Peterman found joy in so many things, particularly his family, and music. PETERMAN loved those who genuinely loved him. He was baptized at an early age at El Cannon Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Albert McKinney, attending church with his loving grandmother, Vera May Hill. He attended school in the Forrest City School District, and was last employed at Sleep Cheap Warehouse of Forrest City, AR.

He is preceded in death by his great grandparents; brother, Dominique Tobar; and many other relatives and friends.

Peterman leaves to cherish his many memories his, Mom – Levette Hill Parchman; Dad – Renardo Parchman, Sr.; daughter, Sophie Tania Parchman and her mother, the love of his life Iesha Rolfe; Grandparents, Vera Hill, Calvin Hill, Carolyn Parchman, Jimmy Moore; Great Grandmother, Louise Pearson; siblings, Bernard "Jeremey" Parchman (Aailiya Hemphill), Renardo D. Parchman, Jr., Renardo "Meat" Parchman, III, Kyuntis Parchman, Briana White, Brandy Parchman, Tiyaná Brittnum, Latravion Bell; special uncle, Deon Hill; special aunts, Neitha Pearson, Jennifer Pearson, Cammilleo Pearson, Teonnia Moore; uncles and aunts, Corey Walker, Steve Moore, Nicoli Pearson, Bernard Pearson, Markeesia Williamson, Shakira Williamson, Zykia Williamson, Shurelle Parchman, James Dinwiddie, and Carolyn Williamson; best friend and brother, Travis Goodman; special family friends, Gabriel Green, Heavenli Scott, and Tanisha Tobar, and a host of great aunts and uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

“ I'll never forget your raspy voice or them early morning calls, like “get up sus!”

I'm deeply wounded by this loss, and truly baffled.

Never to be forgotten, a true friend!
