“ Hello family, I am Michelle the daughter of Aritha Brooks Morris. I remember the days when my mother, aunt Louise and Uncle(Brooks) Mose would talk about Troy as if he was the cousin which lived up the street. He was present in their lives, although he was in another state. Troy, Freddie and Charlie are among the favorites, so they were always on the phone. I'm so glad I had the pleasure of meeting Troy. I remember him as being a quiet gentleman. I pray that our family will have peace as he transition to be with our great Heavenly Father. The California family loves you all.

“ I would like to extend warm thoughts and God's comfort to the family of Troy Smith. I was privileged to come to know Troy through my husband Cleotis Matthews who was a family member. I was always struck by the kindness of Troy whether I was in his presence...or through long-distance phone conversations. Above all, we can rejoice in knowing Troy is in the presence of almighty God now! Be comforted in knowing this. Love in Christ, Judy Matthews
