Tyrone Tinner, affectionately known as “Scooter” as a young boy and “Big T” when he became a man, entered into the world October 1, 1973 in Forrest City, Arkansas. He was born to Mildred and James Tinner. He was full of laughter, joy, and kindness throughout his life. He was preceded in death by a sister—Renae Townsend.

He confessed a hope in Christ at an early age. He actively participated in community programs. He later joined Temple of Deliverance and remained a faithful member until his departure.

As a child, he loved to make everyone laugh and always kept a song in his heart. Two of his favorite genres were the Blues and Gospel music. One of his favorite Gospel songs was “Jesus Will Fix It’ by the Williams Brothers.

Tyrone Tinner peacefully transitioned from his earthly home to his heavenly home on February 21, 2012 with family members present. He was spiritual and had a love for Christ. He took every opportunity to honor God for all his achievements. His love, passion, and service will always be remembered. He loved being a Free Mason as well as a “Master Griller”. Every holiday he would pull out the BBQ grill. Some of his favorite foods included well-seasoned dry ribs, drunken chicken, and smoke links, and he loved for you to sample. He won third place in a BBQ contest. Tyrone Tinner also had a love of fashion. “Mr. GQ” was what some called him. He graduated from Forrest City High School in 1992 and was involved in various activities and organizations. He loved to hunt, fish, travel, and listen to music as well as meeting new people and spending time with family and friends. His favorite football team was the New Orleans Saints. After high school he worked for Truck Stops of America for a few years before landing a career with Hershey’s.

He leaves to cherish his memories his wonderful mother—Mildred Taylor of Forrest City; aunt – Emma Taylor of Forrest City; uncles—Lawrence Moore and James (Pearlene) Taylor; sisters—Shunta Taylor, Vern Allen of Forrest City, Diane Towner of Little Rock, Faye Hicks of Alabama, Marilyn (Freddie) Adams of Virginia, and Vickie Millbrooks of Forrest City; brothers—Calvin Taylor of Georgia, Pat (Willie Mae) Towner of Forrest City, James (Angela) Towner of Forrest City; and a host of cousins and friends.

“ I will miss Big T as we call him...one of the best memories amongst many was the time Bruce Morgan and I took him to kill his first ... He was so excited but scared... he talked a lot of noise but afterwards,we cleaned the deer,divided the meat and went our separate ways....I talked to him during deer season and this past summer he stopped by my job and we talked about old memories.... we had lots of laughter and just a few days prior to heavens gaining a good soldier,I text him on messenger...never would have thought I wud see that picture drop down that let's me know he has read my message for the last time...to his family, yal have my condolences and may God keep yal rich with knowledge and understanding of 2 of his many promises made to us and that is life and death... May God bless and be with yal and know in yals hearts that he has made it to safety...I pray that we all be ready! Mr.Dederick Barnes “ Ty was one of a kind man, with a great heart and soul, I will always remember him with his hunting gear on saying, "What up easy money, it must be nice!" He was always a great help to me, many many days when he did not have to be. My condolences to the family, just know heaven got a "Great ONE" on that day.

“ You are truly going to be missed by all! You always had a smile or smirk on your face based on the questions or comments. You know I loved when you grilled us Circle B's even though you said they were super easy to make.
Mine did not taste as good. I am praying for your family.
Congratulations on earning your wings!!

“ "Million Dollar Smile Ty"! I've been told that I have a big smile, but none compares to yours and that's one of many things I will remember and miss about you. I would imagine that Heaven doesn't need much light but your arrival will certainly test that theory with your Mega Watt smile, Light it up man! You've been promoted by the King, King!
