Veatria Blocker was born March 29, 1953 in Aubrey, Arkansas to Louvenia Henry and Erwin Pulphus. She moved away from the country and made a productive living in Little Rock before returning to resettle in the town of her birth.

She enjoyed many things; gardening, flowers, trees, fishing, watching cooking and gospel shows and preparing food in her kitchen. There was nothing more important to her than her family, which she nurtured, loved, and provided for in such a caring way. If she had it to give, she would give you her last. Did I mention, she made a mean pan of DRESSING!

Veatria served the lord all throughout her life. Beginning at Antioch Missionary Baptist Church in Aubrey, then at First Pentecostal Church in NLR, AR, and her final church home here at Christ Temple Pentecostal Church in Forrest City.

Her brother, Joel Henry of Aubrey and her loving husband of over 30 years,

Andrew Lee Blocker, preceded her in death. As the mysteries of life and death would have it, she passed on October 31, 2023; exactly two years after her late husband's passing on October 31, 2021. During her time of need, it was an honor for US to be able to take care of her.

Those left to honor her memories are her mother: Louvenia Henry of Aubrey, her father: Erwin (Rosie) Pulphus of Cleveland, Ohio, siblings: Herman Barnes, Lolar Robins, Narvella (Aloysius) Thomas, and Willie (Annette) Barnes all of Aubrey, her loving children: Kenneth Hobbs Jr, Sharonda (Bennie) Bracy, Andre (Tamika) Blocker all of Little Rock and her baby daughter Felisha Blocker of Aubrey, her cherished grandchildren: Jalun, Jamison, and Joi Bracy, Tashayla, DeSean, Damario, and Tori Blocker, Mycheal and Marvell Kinard, Kylan White, Jeremiah and Jeremy Harris and two wonderful great grands: Baylor and Jacob. There is a bunch of relatives and friends left to celebrate her forever.

We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.

-2 Corinthians 5:8

“ Sister Blocker was a prayer warrior, she made sure that she kept her family before the Lord. Even as her health started to fail , she still wanted prayer for her children and grandchildren. Gone but not forgotten.
